Visit us at the Craft Brewers Conference April 9 – April 11

Resource Label Group is attending the Craft Brewers Conference in Denver from April 9th through April 11th. Stop by and talk with us about our can and bottle labeling solutions.

Presented by the Brewers Association, the Craft Brewers Conference is an industry-only event helping craft brewers and industry professionals connect with premium label vendors like Resource Label Group. To learn more about the conference or to register click here. Or to get a jump start on your available label options, check out our guide to beer labels.

We're showcasing our craft beer label capabilities, such as:

- Brew Wrap
- Shrink sleeve
- Pressure-sensitive labels
- Foil stamping
- Tactile label
- Matte and gloss finishes
- NFC and more!

Stop by and check out our booth — we look forward to seeing you there!
